ITEMS 2519-2527

- E187 2519 Two notebooks used by Alfred Walter Norfolk, a fireman and driver (from 14th April 1920) at Stratford. They appear to be a daily record of his booking-on and booking-off times, and the engine that he worked on, plus some details of the work done. In many cases, gummed stickers have been attached to each page: these appear to be from his wage slips, and show his pay for each week.

Station/Location Plans and Drawings

This collection of some 9800 copies of original drawings have been donated by Railtrack plc./Network Rail. They cover a wide range of locations on the GER, GN&GEJR, LT&SR, M&GNR, NLR etc, and date from the 1830s to the present day. They comprise a diverse range of subjects from complete station and location surveys to small details of individual buildings. Due to the sheer size of this collection, full details are given in a separate catalogue: Special Supplement No. 1. The table below shows the locations that are covered in this collection of drawings, the number of drawings available, and the principal catalogue number. The locations are listed below in alphabetical order, locations shown in Bold Type are passenger stations, those in Light Type are goods depots, yards etc.

Station/Location Plans and Drawings

This collection of some 2400 copies of original drawings has been donated by Railtrack plc./Network Rail They cover a wide range of locations on the GER, GN&GEJR, LT&SR, M&GNR, NLR etc, and date from the 1890s to the present day. They comprise a diverse range of subjects from complete station and location surveys to small details of individual buildings, electrical and hydraulic installations and so on. Due to the size of this collection, full details are given in a separate catalogue: Special Supplement No. 2. Unlike drawings 3001 onwards listed in Special Supplement No. 1, these comprise prints and originals that are rolled. The table below shows the locations that are covered in this collection of drawings, the number of drawings available, and the principal catalogue number code. The locations are listed below in alphabetical order, locations shown in Bold Type are passenger stations, those in Light Type are goods depots, yards etc.
