

'On the Line' by Dell Leigh

Page	Title	Topic described
13	MIDNIGHT MEN	Driving a night train south from Edinburgh.
16	YOUR FISH	The catch from boat to train at Grimsby.
21	T.F. 1	On Train Ferry 1 to Zeebrugge.
24	SPORT BEFORE BATTLE	Berwick-on-Tweed, site of a battle between English and Scottish in 1333.
29	THE BLUE ENSIGN	The SS St Denis on a night sailing between Harwich and the Hook.
32	A CAVE MAN	With a track worker through a 2-mile tunnel between Leeds and Harrogate.
35	AFTER DINNER	At the golf hotel at Cruden Bay near Peterhead, Aberdeenshire.
38	A CUP OF TEA	In an Edinburgh signal cabin.
43	... AND SO TO BED	On a sleeper from Kings Cross to Edinburgh.
46	No. 1 BOX	No. 1 signal box at Newcastle.
51	CITIZENS AND A KING	King Edward I at Berwick-on-Tweed.
54	CERBERUS	A ticket collector on the platform at a busy Liverpool Street.
59	ABOVE AND BELOW	On the SS Bruges , returning from Antwerp to Parkeston Quay.
62	BULLS IN CHINA SHOPS	The work of the customs sheds at Parkeston Quay.
65	DEI EX MACHINA	In the Train Control Office at Coatbridge, Scotland.
68	A MODERN INFERNO	Serving the blast furnaces at Middlesbrough.
73	AN UNDERWORLD	A coal mine in Yorkshire.
76	THE FIVE JUST MEN	The signal crew manning the station signal box at Liverpool Street.
81	THREE PHASES	Three stages in the history of York.
84	SCOTLAND'S DAY	Coping with a Scotland v England rugby international at Murrayfield.
87	THE SHOPS	The workshops at Doncaster.
90	THOSE DAYS AND THESE	At Scarborough, past and present.
95	A CITY OF MEMORIES	Edinburgh.
98	JUPITER'S REALM	On the footplate, from Kings Cross to Grantham.
101	NIGHT WORK	On the travelling post office between London and Edinburgh.
104	THE SILVER CITY	Aberdeen.
106	DOG NIGHTS	Security at Hull Docks.
111	A TRANQUIL TRIP	A round trip to Holland, using the Harwich to the Hook day boat service.
114	THE CAPITAL OF GOLF	Taking a look at a selection of the golf courses in Scotland.
119	SHAPING THEIR ENDS	A visit to Darlington Works.
122	DAY IN, NIGHT OUT	The parcels office at Kings Cross.
127	HERRINGS	The fish traffic at Yarmouth and Lowestoft.
131	BITS OF HISTORY	Some events in the history of York.
134	A FIVER	A weekend at the Felix Hotel in Felixstowe.
139	THE IN AND OUT	The locomotive running shed at Kings Cross.
142	BRIDGE MEN	The fifty men who work permanently on the Forth Bridge.
145	DARK FLODDEN	The battle between the English and the Scottish in 1513 in Northumberland.
148	FROM A BEDROOM WINDOW	In the Cruden Bay Hotel in Aberdeenshire, near Peterhead.
151	PRIDE AND PROGRESS	Wagon building at Shildon in Co. Durham.
154	FISH AND FOLK	Organising traffic workings at Edinburgh Waverley.
159	"PASS THE MILK"	Dealing overnight with London's milk supply at Finsbury Park.
162	MAN v NATURE	Coping with temperature changes and strong winds on the Forth Bridge.
167	BREAKFAST!	On Aberdeen station, having just arrived by the sleeper train from London.
170	FIVE BOB A TIME	The sleeper depot at Boston in Lincolnshire.
175	THE CHURCH MILITANT	Durham, where the Scottish fought the English in 1346.
178	LOWESTOFT LORE	About kippers, bloaters, pickled herrings and Dover soles.
180	ONE SUMMER DAY	On the West Highland line to Mallaig.
183	HIDDEN HANDS	Interactions between the signal boxes on the approach to Liverpool Street.
186	THE MERRY-GO-ROUND	Scarborough.
191	A QUIET INTERLUDE	A pleasant journey north on the Flying Scotsman.
194	ALARUMS AND EXCURSIONS	The staff who deal with the overnight traffic at York.
197	THE LAST JOURNEY	A Kings Cross driver, due to retire, about to make his final run.